This strategy not only enhances portfolio robustness but also enhances REC's reputation as a socially responsible lender, in accordance with international sustainability objectives and appealing to impact driven capital.	-	Positive: Improved risk management, enhanced portfolio resilience and a stronger reputation as a socially responsible lender. 14	Climate change	Risk	Climate change introduces physical risks (floods, droughts, cyclones), transition risks (carbon tax, clean energy standards) and reputational risks associated with ESG expectations. These have the potential to interrupt projects, raise credit risk and affect REC's ability to access capital. REC is responding to this by incorporating climate risk into project appraisals, matching regulatory requirements and green financing upscaling.	REC is advancing its ESG Journey and integrated E&S assessment in the loan appraisal process of private borrowers. We are in the process of aligning disclosures with draft RBI's framework on Climate related Financial Risks. REC aims to expand its clean energy portfolio underscoring its commitment to India's energy transition. In financial year 2025-26, the Company has achieved a y-o-y growth of renewable loan book by 30% which is the testimony of our commitment. Also, REC has started incentivizing ESG Complied borrowers.	Negative: Possibility of asset stranding due to climate risk.
15	Operational eco-efficiency	Risk	As a major financier in India's power sector, REC's financial health and reputation are tied to the environmental performance of the projects it funds. Poor eco-efficiency in financed assets can lead to reputational damage, increased regulatory scrutiny, potential stranded assets and limited access to green finance.	To mitigate this, REC has adopted a comprehensive ESG Policy guiding its investments and operations. This policy enhances ESG due diligence in project appraisal, prioritizes funding for renewable and energy-efficient projects and develops green financial products. It also builds internal capacity and promotes borrower awareness of eco-efficient technologies, ensuring sustainable growth and alignment with national environmental goals. Any cyberattack or data breach may cripple operations, invite regulatory penalties and dent stakeholder trust. As there is more and more digitalization taking place, the threat level is also on the rise, so it becomes critical to implement stringent security protocols and adhere to regulations. Neglecting it risks not only the continuity of business but also invalidates REC's credibility and accountability as a public sector organization.	REC, as a prominent Government of India Company, prioritizes Data Privacy and Cybersecurity with utmost diligence to protect sensitive information and maintain operational resilience. The Company has implemented a robust Information Security Management System (ISMS) to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of its information assets, aligning with national cybersecurity frameworks and global best practices. Led by its Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), REC actively promotes a culture of cybersecurity awareness through continuous trainings, informative sessions, internal messages, social media campaigns and even desktop wallpapers. This commitment is further solidified by a comprehensive data privacy policy that rigorously safeguards the personal and sensitive data of all stakeholders, complemented by regular security audits and the adoption of advanced technologies to mitigate evolving cyber threats, thereby reinforcing trust and securing its vital financial and operational infrastructure.	Negative: Potential fines/ penalties in case of violations.

Sl. No.	Material issue identified	Indicate whether risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk/opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
17	Corporate Governance and Business Ethics	Risk	For REC, poor Corporate Governance and ethical misconduct are not only reputational risks they are systemic risks that can compromise strategic decision-making, investor confidence and long-term value creation. In the current regulatory climate, any case of corruption or non-compliance can lead to legal sanctions and damage stakeholder trust. Moreover, without robust governance ingrained at all levels, there is a danger of misalignment between corporate behaviour and stakeholder expectations. Thus, a culture of accountability and integrity is not a luxury, it is a necessity for REC's sustainable development.	REC's Corporate Governance framework is a cornerstone of its operations, reflecting its status as a Government of India Company. The Company adheres rigorously to the Guidelines on Corporate Governance for Central Public Sector Enterprises (CPSEs) issued by the Department of Public Enterprises (DPE), alongside the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015. Furthermore, the Vigilance Division of REC functions independently under the Central Vigilance Commission, ensuring vigilance activities as per CVC Guidelines. This commitment to transparent, accountable and ethical practices, overseen by a Board with Government nominated Directors, builds trust among all stakeholders and ensures the Company's long-term sustainability as a public entity.	Negative: Potential fines/ penalties in case of violations.
18	Regulatory Compliance	Risk	REC, being a Government-owned enterprise, is under strict legal and regulatory compliance. Failure to comply with respective laws, financial regulations or industry regulations can subject the Company to penalties, lawsuits and business losses. Aside from fiscal impacts, regulatory violations can substantially erode REC's reputation as a credible and compliant organization. Within a strongly regulated ecosystem, stringent compliance is not just legally required but strategically imperative vital to maintaining stakeholder trust, guaranteeing smooth operations and ensuring REC's future growth and credibility.	As a CPSE under the Ministry of Power, Government of India, REC's approach to regulatory risk is intrinsically linked to its public mandate. It maintains a highly vigilant compliance division that proactively monitors all Governmental Directives, policies and statutory changes from entities like the Ministry of Power, RBI and SEBI. This ensures not only strict adherence to extant regulations but also agile adaptation to new norms, safeguarding its critical role in national power sector development and financial stability.	Negative: Potential fines/ penalties in case of violations.

Sl. No.	Material issue identified	Indicate whether risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk/ opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
19	Risk Management	Risk	Risk management involves identifying, assessing and mitigating risks that affect the entire organization or industry, rather than just specific projects or investments. By effectively managing risks, REC can safeguard financial stability, reputation and long-term viability.	Implementing robust risk management processes ensures resilience in the face of uncertainties, enhances decision making and preserves stakeholder trust. It also captures REC's ability to absorb shocks arising from financial and economic stress and meet stricter regulatory requirements related to the complexity and interconnectedness of companies in the industry.	Negative Implications.

At REC, the commitment to ESG is not a peripheral initiative; it is the core strategy driving the evolution of REC into a global leader in sustainable finance. As a Maharatna enterprise, REC recognizes its pivotal role in India's energy transition. In financial year 2025-26, REC demonstrated that financial resilience and environmental stewardship are mutually reinforcing. The approach at REC is holistic-integrating ESG into loan appraisals, decarbonizing internal operations and investing deeply in the human capital required to lead the green economy. REC ESG performance highlights for financial year 2025-26 as follow:

Additionally, REC achieved a major milestone by sourcing 100% green power for Corporate Headquarters from DISCOM-DHBVNL. Together, these green initiatives have slashed Scope 2 emissions by 76% and reduced overall Scope 1 & 2 emissions by 69%.

A part of this budget was deployed during the financial year and the remaining unutilized balance was moved to an escrow account for designated projects, strictly adhering to Companies Act, 2013 & Regulations. This capital drives critical initiatives in healthcare, education and rural development to support underserved communities across India.

8. Number of days of accounts payables ((Accounts payable *365) / Cost of goods/services procured) in the following format:

	FY 2025-26	FY 2024-25
Number of days of accounts payables	39*	24

* The increase of number of days accounts payable compared to last year is primarily due to two factors related to our role as a nodal agency for government programs like RDSS. Firstly, there was a significant ~24% decrease in procurement volume (the denominator), specifically for smart metering. Secondly, accounts payable (the numerator) increased due to payments awaiting disbursement from the Government of India for these projects. These timing differences are inherent to government-led schemes and do not reflect any inefficiency. We maintain rigorous financial management, ensuring prompt payments upon receipt of funds, aligning with our robust governance and ESG objectives.

Not Applicable. REC does not perform Life Cycle Assessments (LCA) for its financial products in the same manner that a manufacturing Company would for physical products.

However, REC actively incorporates Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) considerations into its project appraisal and financing processes. This strategy serves a similar purpose to that of an LCA by evaluating and mitigating the environmental impacts of the projects they finance throughout their lifecycle.

2. REC operates in a capacity that inherently avoids significant social or environmental risks typically associated with manufacturing or physical production. As an NBFC, the Company does not engage in activities that would directly contribute to ecological degradation or social harm.
Nonetheless, REC is deeply committed to maintaining responsible financing practices that prioritize environmental integrity. During its thorough project appraisal process, the Company undertakes a systematic evaluation of the environmental risks linked to the power projects it chooses to finance. This evaluation involves meticulous due diligence, which includes a comprehensive review of all relevant environmental compliance regulations and necessary clearances to ensure that projects align with sustainability goals.
In addition to these practices, REC actively supports Government initiatives aimed at enhancing environmental protection. The Company plays a pivotal role in promoting the adoption of advanced pollution control technologies within thermal power plants. This encompasses financing for the installation of critical systems such as Flue Gas Desulphurization (FGD), Selective Catalytic Reduction (SCR) and Electrostatic Precipitators (ESP). These technologies are essential for significantly reducing harmful emissions, thereby contributing to improved air quality and a healthier environment for communities surrounding these power facilities.

Indicate product category	Reclaimed products and their packaging materials as % of total products sold in respective category

*Consequent to our clean energy transition strategies, Scope 2 emissions decreased significantly by approximately 76%. This reduction is attributed to securing 100% renewable power for the REC Corporate Office and expanding rooftop solar capacities at three regional offices, collectively accounting for 3,167 MWh of green energy consumption.

Note: Indicate if any independent assessment/evaluation/assurance has been carried out by an external agency? (Y/N) If yes, name of the external agency - Yes, REC has undertaken reasonable assurance for BRSR core parameters from M/s Corporate Professionals.

8. Does the entity have any project related to reducing Green House Gas emission? If yes, then provide details.

Yes, REC is significantly involved in reducing Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions through its core business operations and internal initiatives.

REC's primary contribution stems from its role as a major financier of India's transition to a clean energy power sector. REC provides substantial loans for a wide range of renewable energy projects including solar, wind and other non-fossil fuel-based power generation sources. This directly displaces electricity generated from conventional and emission-intensive sources.

Issuance of Green Bonds: To further support green initiatives, REC regularly issues international Green Bonds. The funds raised from these bonds are exclusively channeled into "Eligible Green Projects" that meet stringent environmental criteria, directly contributing to carbon emission reductions as per REC Green finance framework.

Enhancing Energy Efficiency: Beyond renewables, REC also supports projects aimed at improving the efficiency of the power grid, such as smart metering and distribution reforms. While not direct GHG reduction projects, these initiatives lead to reduced energy losses and consequently, lower emissions from the power sector.

REC also focuses on minimizing its own carbon footprint: Alongwith rooftop solar plants installed at Corporate Office and RECIPMT, REC has also sourced 100% Green power for its Corporate Office through the Green Tariff facility of DISCOM and roof-top solar were installed across three regional offices-Panchkula, Lucknow and Vadodara with combined capacity of 54 kWp in financial year 2025-26, which cumulatively generated 3,167 MWH electricity in financial year 2025-26, avoiding 2,248 tonnes of CO₂ emissions.

In essence, REC actively enables large-scale GHG reductions across India by financing the green energy transition, while simultaneously implementing robust measures to decarbonize its own operations.

10. Briefly describe the waste management practices adopted in your establishments. Describe the strategy adopted by your Company to reduce usage of hazardous and toxic chemicals in your products and processes and the practices adopted to manage such wastes.

As a NBFC, REC's establishments primarily consist of a corporate office and potentially smaller regional offices. It does not manufacture products or engage in processes that typically involve the large-scale generation or usage of hazardous and toxic chemicals, as a manufacturing industry would.

Our waste management practices are designed to handle waste generated in such an environment, focusing on reduction, segregation and responsible disposal. We promote a "paperless office" via our E-office system and we have partnered with an authorised waste management vendor for the responsible disposal of waste. The disposal of old, unserviceable and obsolete IT equipment, identified as e-waste, is carried out through registered recyclers/re-processors under the Central Pollution Control Board, Government of India and the State Pollution Control Committee/Board for electronic waste, following the procedure defined under REC's Procurement Guidelines.

Our approach ensures minimal environmental impact from our administrative operations.

5. Does the entity have a business continuity and disaster management plan? Give details in 100 words/ web link.

REC has successfully implemented a comprehensive Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery Plan designed to ensure organisational resilience in the face of unexpected crises. To equip our teams with the skills needed for an effective response, we conduct rigorous training programs that cover various emergency scenarios.

In addition, we regularly organise disaster drill exercises that simulate real-world emergencies, allowing us to evaluate the effectiveness of our established procedures and guidelines as outlined in the plan. These drills are meticulously audited by external professionals certified by CERT-In, ensuring that our practices meet industry standards.

The feedback received from these audits is invaluable; it forms an integral part of our commitment to continuous improvement, helping us refine our strategies and strengthen our response capabilities. Furthermore, the Business Continuity Plan undergoes periodic reviews to ensure it remains up-to-date with the latest developments. Throughout this process, both management and the Board are kept informed of any changes or advancements, ensuring that our approach remains robust and adaptive.

6. Disclose any significant adverse impact to the environment, arising from the value chain of the entity. What mitigation or adaptation measures have been taken by the entity in this regard?

REC is actively engaged in financing the installation of advanced pollution control technologies in thermal power plants, in accordance with directives set forth by the Government. A significant part of this initiative includes the deployment of Flue Gas Desulphurization

(FGD) systems, Selective Catalytic Reduction (SCR) technologies and Electrostatic Precipitators (ESPs). These systems play a crucial role in significantly reducing harmful emissions and particulate matter generated during power generation.

REC has taken substantial steps to support environmentally responsible approach by financing Ultra Super Critical Thermal Power Projects. These projects are distinguished by their superior thermal efficiency compared to conventional thermal power plants, which contributes to lower fuel consumption and reduced greenhouse gas emissions. For the financial year 2025-26, REC has sanctioned a total of 2 Ultra Super Critical Projects, amounting to a significant ₹22,228.25 crores. This investment reflects REC's forward-thinking approach and dedication to sustainable energy development in India.

7. Percentage of value chain partners (by value of business done with such partners) that were assessed for environmental impacts.

REC, being a NBFC, does not own or implement projects. For renewable energy projects funded by REC, the Company requires its borrowers to obtain an Environmental and Social Impact Assessment (ESIA) in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

8. How many Green Credits have been generated or procured:

a. By the listed entity

REC has achieved a remarkable milestone by generating a total of 1,308 megawatt-hours (MWh) of clean solar power from its in-house rooftop solar installations, which have a combined capacity of 979 kWp at Corporate Office, 40 kWp at RECIPMT and 54 kWp across three Regional Offices (Panchkula, Lucknow and Vadodara). To further enhance its environmental impact, during financial year 2025-26, the Company has sourced 100% green power for REC Corporate Office through the Green Tariff facility of Discom-DHBVNL. These achievements significantly reduced the carbon emissions by avoiding 2,248 tonnes of CO₂. This reduction can be quantified as the generation of 2,248 carbon credits, emphasising REC's commitment to sustainability.

Additionally, REC has made strides in energy efficiency at its corporate office by operationalising an automatic lighting management system in the previous financial year. This system aims to optimise energy usage by automatically adjusting lighting according to occupancy and natural light levels, contributing further to the organization's sustainability efforts.

b. By the top ten (in terms of value of purchases and sales, respectively) value chain partners

As the cornerstone of REC's operations lies in project finance, the organization has made significant strides in environmental impact through its portfolio of renewable energy projects. During the financial year 2025-26, the top ten renewable projects that REC financed successfully avoided an impressive total of 76,31,892 tonnes of CO₂ emissions. This remarkable achievement is tantamount to generating 76,31,892 Carbon Credits, which reflect the positive contribution these projects have made to combating climate change.

When expanding the scope to encompass all renewable projects funded by REC, the cumulative avoided emissions soar to an astounding approximately 1,22,05,515 tonnes of CO₂, equivalent to 12.2 million tonnes. Utilising the PCAF (Partnership for Carbon Accounting Financials) methodology for more precise attribution, REC's direct contribution to these avoided emissions stands at 76,43,770 tonnes of CO₂. This underscores REC's pivotal role in advancing sustainable development and reducing greenhouse gas emissions through strategic financing in the renewable energy sector.

Cross-Cutting Engagement Platforms

Beyond specific programmatic interventions, REC's strategic policy influence is also channelled through the following:

Regulatory Consultations:

REC's Board members and Senior Management regularly engage in working groups of concerned ministries from time to time and provide inputs to regulatory authorities and ensure sectoral concerns are addressed during policy formulation.

- REC senior officials sit in the Board of selected Distribution Companies, wherein Government of India policy implementation is ensured and State Policy are shaped.

RECPDCL Field-Level Feedback:

REC's wholly-owned subsidiary, RECPDCL, implements ground-level projects such as:

- Smart metering deployments
- 11 kV Rural Feeder Monitoring Scheme
- Ladakh grid infrastructure development
- National Feeder Monitoring System (under RDSS)

These initiatives provide empirical evidence and operational feedback, helping refine policy frameworks based on real-world challenges.

Conclusion: Advocacy Aligned with National Priorities

REC's public policy engagement model is multi-dimensional-anchored in thought leadership, data transparency, direct scheme execution and strategic financing. This integrated approach allows REC to catalyse sectoral reforms, support climate and energy access goals and help realise India's vision of a resilient, sustainable power sector.

ESSENTIAL INDICATORS

1. Details of Social Impact Assessments (SIA) of projects undertaken by the entity based on applicable laws, in the current financial year.

3. Describe the mechanisms to receive and redress grievances of the community.

In line with the Government's push for transparent and efficient grievance management, REC has integrated its Public Grievance Redressal Cell with the Centralized Public Grievance Redress and Monitoring System (CPGRAMS). This national platform, maintained by the Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances (DARPG), consolidates grievances from various sectors and facilitates their resolution in a streamlined manner.

Through CPGRAMS, citizens can lodge complaints concerning public services, including those related to REC's operations. The Grievance Redressal Cell ensures that all grievances received through CPGRAMS are addressed within the framework of national standards and within the specified timelines. This integration not only simplifies the grievance redressal process but also makes it easier for the public to access the system, track progress and ensure that their concerns are acted upon.

*An "Aspirational District" is a designation by the Government of India aimed at improving the socio-economic status (health & nutrition, education, agriculture & water resources, financial inclusion & skill development) of districts that are relatively underdeveloped.

3. (a) Do you have a preferential procurement policy where you give preference to purchase from suppliers comprising marginalized /vulnerable groups? (Yes/No)

Yes, REC has a policy to support public procurement from MSMEs.

The policy is available at <https://recindia.com/uploads/files/RECPolicy-for-MSME-11022022.pdf>

(b) From which marginalized /vulnerable groups do you procure?

REC being a CPSU, we are mandated to adhere to the Government of India's policy on Public Procurement Policy for Micro and Small Enterprises (MSEs), 2012 (Link: <https://dcmsme.gov.in/pppm.htm.aspx>). This policy, which has been amended over time and as per the latest amendments to the policy, all PSEs are required to meet the following targets from MSEs annually:

- 1) 25% of the total annual procurement of goods and services.
- 2) A sub-target of 4% within the 25% for procurement from MSEs owned by Scheduled Caste (SC) and Scheduled Tribe (ST) entrepreneurs.

3) A sub-target of 3% within the 25% for procurement from MSEs owned by women entrepreneurs.

To support these goals, we have aligned our internal policy to exclusively procure commonly used goods and services valued up to ₹10 lakh from MSE vendors. This initiative helps boost their growth and participation in our supply chain.

We've implemented several measures to encourage MSE participation:

- Price Preference: If a non-MSE vendor submits the lowest bid (L1), an MSE can still be awarded the contract by matching the L1 price, provided their initial bid was within 15% of the L1 price. This provision applies when an order can be split among multiple vendors.
- Reduced Financial Barriers: Registered MSEs receive tender documents for free and are exempt from submitting earnest money deposits, making it easier for them to bid on our contracts.
- Vendor Development Programs (VDPs): We organize VDPs to connect MSEs with our buyers, help them understand our requirements and equip them to become competitive suppliers.

By implementing these supportive measures, we are creating a more inclusive and equitable procurement environment that fosters the growth of the MSE sector.

(c) What percentage of total procurement (by value) does it constitute?

REC's procurement from MSEs for the financial year 2025-26 hit a remarkable 64.42%, well beyond the mandated minimum. The Company's role in this is limited, though, as it relies on vendors to report their own diversity claims to help REC meet the Government's procurement targets.

PRINCIPLE 9 Businesses should engage with and provide value to their consumers in a responsible manner
ESSENTIAL INDICATORS
1. Describe the mechanisms in place to receive and respond to consumer complaints and feedback.

REC, being a NBFC, has adopted a Fair Practices Code in line with the statutory requirements. The Fair Practices Code, as prescribed by the RBI, outlines a comprehensive grievance redressal mechanism designed specifically for consumers. This framework enables individuals to submit any complaints they may have regarding services or practices. The Board of Directors plays a crucial role in this process, as they periodically conduct thorough reviews to assess compliance with the Fair Practices Code. This review includes an evaluation of the grievances that have been filed under this code.

For the financial year 2025-26, it is noteworthy that the organization did not receive any complaints associated with the Fair Practices Code, indicating a high level of consumer satisfaction and adherence to the established practices. For those interested in reviewing the guidelines and protocols outlined in the Fair Practices Code, it can be accessed directly through the official channels of REC Limited. <https://recindia.com/uploads/files/Fair-Practices-Code.pdf>

In addition to these initiatives, REC boasts an in-house training institute known as the REC Institute of Power Management and Training (RECIPMT). This institution is dedicated to fulfilling the training and development needs of engineers and managers from power sector organizations, not only within India but also extending its reach internationally. RECIPMT offers a diverse array of training programs focusing on vital topics such as electrical safety, the techno-commercial improvement of DISCOM performance and the sustainability of power utilities.

3. Mechanisms in place to inform consumers of any risk of disruption/discontinuation of essential services:

For REC Limited, which is a project finance NBFC and not a direct utility provider, the concept of "consumers" and "essential services" needs to be understood in the context of financing infrastructure, not providing power directly.

The essential service is the financing of power and infrastructure projects. The "consumers" are the large State and private power utilities, not the end-users of electricity.

Therefore, the mechanisms for informing stakeholders of any risk of disruption/discontinuation of its essential service (financing) are primarily focused on transparency, regulatory compliance and direct communication with its institutional borrowers and the financial market. The direct mechanisms in place are Regulatory disclosures, Stock Exchange filings, Direct communication with borrowers, Credit Ratings.

4. Does the entity display product information on the product over and above what is mandated as per local laws? If yes, provide details in brief. Did your entity carry out any survey with regard to consumer satisfaction relating to the major products / services of the entity, significant locations of operation of the entity or the entity as a whole? (Yes/No)

Yes, the entity provides product information that goes beyond legal requirements.

As a wholesale NBFC, the Company primarily offers financial products to State utilities. To ensure transparency, detailed loan terms, conditions and other crucial information are available on its corporate website. In addition to the website, the Company actively advertises its products through:

- i. Workshops: For example, a workshop on Advanced Metering Infrastructure (AMI) was held in financial year 2025-26 to educate borrowers.
- ii. Investor and Borrower Meets: These events are organized to provide direct information.
- iii. Regional Office: The State offices of RECs educate small groups of borrowers about available products and services.

Additionally, REC is dedicated to enhancing customer experience by continuously conducting customer satisfaction surveys. These surveys are strategically implemented at multiple touchpoints throughout the loan transaction process, including application, approval, disbursement and closure stages. We actively seek feedback from our borrowers, which serves as a valuable resource for refining our systems and processes. This feedback informs our ongoing efforts to improve service delivery and enables us to focus more effectively on the training and development of our staff, ultimately aiming to provide an exceptional customer experience.

As an NBFC, we rigorously adhere to the Fair Practices Code as mandated by the RBI. This code outlines the ethical lending practices we follow in our interactions with borrowers, encompassing various stages of the loan lifecycle, including the application process, approval and sanctioning of loans, disbursement, post-disbursement supervision and an established grievance redressal mechanism. The full text of our Fair Practices Code is available for review at <https://recindia.nic.in/uploads/files/co-hr-GRO-Order-Fair-Practice-Code-dt-250326.pdf>, ensuring that our customers are well-informed about their rights and the standards we uphold.
